Ss Peter and Paul Swadlincote - Open for Mass

St Joseph the Worker - Open for Mass

St Joseph the Worker

I am delighted to announce that we are now able to have public Mass at St Joseph the Worker. These will take place on Tuesday and Thursday evening at 7pm and Sunday 9am. It is also hoped that the Polish Vigil Mass will start up again soon as well.

Due to restricted numbers due to COVID restrictions, the majority of Sunday Masses will continue at Ss Peter and Paul due to larger numbers able to get in.

Booking a place for Mass

As the weeks go by, I am hoping that the numbers attending Mass, will begin to increase. This means that it will become more important to book your place.

Capacity at Ss Peter and Paul is 65 and at St Joseph the Worker is 45.

Online booking:

www.eventbrite.co.uk/o/st-peter-and-st-paul-swadlincote-30679012264

Alternatively you can contact Fr Neil by email or phone and he will book your place.

Key things to note:

- Social distancing must be observed at all times
- We encourage you to wear face masks/coverings.
- Please follow instructions of the stewards - especially at Communion and at the end of Mass.
- There will be no singing.
- Collection - a basket will be available at the back but we do encourage people to consider setting up a standing order.
- No offertory procession
- No sign of peace

Distribution of Holy Communion

Holy communion will be under one kind

Before distribution, I will hold the Body of Christ up and say 'The Body of Christ' to which you the people will respond Amen.

Then you will be guided up by stewards to receive communion - keeping a safe distance apart. Communion will be distributed without any words said (as we will have done this part together earlier).

During these challenging times, communion will only be distributed on the hand (as soon as we can give communion on the tongue, I will let you know).

You then return to your pew and then the final prayer and blessing is said.

After Mass has finished please wait for the stewards to ask your row to leave.

Those who have died recently:

Please keep in your prayers Eileen Roach, Pamela Mason, Rafal Konderski and Sean Canavan

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord.

May God Bless you and your families in the coming week.

Fr Neil
