RETIREMENT OF MRS MCQUILLAN

It is after a great deal of thought and consideration that I have taken the decision to retire at the end of this academic year. St Edward's is, and always has been, a huge part of my life, having been a pupil at the school and then taking up my second teaching post here back in 1991. It has been an absolute privilege and honour to lead the school over the last 14 years. I have been very fortunate to work with talented staff and Governors over the years and welcomed so many wonderful children and families to St Edward's; I know I will miss them all very much. I would like to thank the parish for their continual support of me and St Edward's and I'm sure this will continue to flourish. St Edward's will always hold a very special place in my heart and I know, as the school moves forward into a new chapter, it will continue to be the loving and caring Catholic community in a little corner of Swadlincote, that shares Christ's love with all it meets.
