(SVP) UPDATE

It is with regret that after almost fifty years I am announcing that the St Mary and Modwen conference/St Joseph's /St Peter and Paul of the St Vincent de Paul Society is now in abeyance. It has been a privilege for our members past and present to be of help to the parishioners of SS Mary and Modwen and our twinned conference in India.

Thank you for your support and help over the years.

Yours in St Vincent
Bill (President)

In light of the above we are hoping to set up an SVP in St Peters & Pauls and St Joseph's. Which means that:

Volunteers are Needed.

The SVP is an international Christian charity that helps tackle poverty and loneliness in all its forms. Volunteer members are invited to form a new SVP conference and to join in our vital mission to help those most in need in our community. So, if you feel you are called to turn your faith into action and are able to offer help in whichever way you can, then we would love to hear from you. The SVP will be making an appeal for volunteers during Mass times on the 23rd and 24th of June. You can also find out more information about our work on www.svp.org.uk or contact Joe Gasan, our diocese Membership Support Officer at joeg@svp.org.uk

There will be a follow up Information Meeting at the hall at SSPP following the appeals on Wednesday 28th June at 7pm for all those interested.
