Message from Fr Neil

Thank you for all the messages and prayers that I have received since my fall at the mass during Holy Week. The fall has led to a major break under my knee. At the time of writing, I'm still in the QMC hospital in Nottingham, waiting to be discharged and to go to Leicester. Where I'll be staying in a retirement flat in my home parish. For the next couple of months at least I have to keep weight off my leg and then after that at a time of rehab as I begin to walk again.

I'm very grateful, to Fr Simon for covering Holy Week and heartened to hear that the numbers attending were so good!

Over the coming months, various Priests will be covering the Sunday Masses.

Sadly, we don't have the capacity to cover Weekdays as well. However, if people wish to arrange services of Word and communion during the week please do so and let the office know what days and times that will take place to go in the bulletin. I would also encourage times of Adoration during the week, particularly to pray for Vocations.

I hope to see you again soon, it's going to be a long road.

Please keep me in your prayers as they are needed and much appreciated.

God bless, Fr Neil.

Please note that there are no weekday Masses

However, a Celebration of Word and Communion will take place each Wednesday at 10.00am at SSPP.
